  - Facilities. Employer shall provide such furniture, equipment, supplies and support personnel as Employer determines are reasonably required to enable Employee to perform Employee's obligations under this Agreement.
  - Use of Premises. Employee covenants not to use any part of Employer premises for any purpose other than the performance of the Services under this Agreement.
13. Termination.
  - Termination "For Cause". Employer may terminate this Agreement immediately for "cause" which means:
    - Any act or omission which is contrary to Employer's business interests, reputation or goodwill;
    - Loss of an unrestricted Georgia license to practice as a  ; denial, suspension, revocation, or non-renewal of licensure or credentials in any state or facility, or any investigation or charge of violation of any law or regulation, or any sanction by any government program, managed care organization, or professional association or any threat or notice to Employee of the foregoing;
    - Conviction of, plea of guilty to, or plea of no contest to, a felony, any crime of moral turpitude, or any crime relating to the  profession;
    - Notice to Employee from the Medicare program of its intent to exclude, or exclusion of, the Employee from the program; or
    - Fails to perform a duty to be performed by Employee, or otherwise materially breaches any provisions of this Agreement.
    - The failure of the Employer to terminate the Employee's employment hereunder for "good cause" as a result of any of the foregoing at any one or more times shall not affect the Employer's ability to terminate the Employee's employment hereunder for "good cause" as a result of the subsequent occurrence of any act which constitutes "good cause" hereunder. If this Agreement is terminated by Employer for "good cause", the Employer's only obligation to Employee shall be the payment of any earned but unpaid compensation
  - Termination for Breach. Either party may terminate this Agreement at any time upon the other's material breach, and failure to cure with fifteen (15) days written notice.
  - Termination "Without Cause". Either party may terminate this Agreement at any time, without cause, upon thirty (30) days prior written notice.
  - Termination Due to Cessation of Business. This Agreement shall terminate in the event Employer ceases or discontinues operating its business.

- Termination for Death or Disability. Employer may terminate this Agreement if Employee suffers a permanent disability and is unable to perform Employee's duties or render the Services in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement; or if the Employee dies. Permanent disability shall mean any illness, physical or mental, resulting in the inability of Employee to perform Employee's duties and/or the Services in accordance with this Agreement for a total of one hundred twenty (120) days in a calendar year, whether consecutive or not. Once Employee has been unable to provide the Services under this Agreement for a total of one hundred twenty (120) days, Employer has the right to terminate Employee's engagement under this Agreement.
  - Termination Due to Change in Law. This Agreement is intended to comply with existing state and federal law. The parties acknowledge that the existing law and regulations may change and that the courts or state or federal agencies with appropriate jurisdiction may change their interpretation of existing law. Upon the enactment or amendment of any state or federal law or regulation, or upon the issuance of any judicial or interpretive ruling of any existing state or federal law or regulation, that renders this Agreement illegal or materially changes the obligations of the parties, the parties shall use their best efforts during a sixty (60) day period thereafter to mutually agree to such amendments to the Agreement as to permit its valid and legal continuation. If after such sixty (60) day period, the parties are unable to agree to amend the Agreement, this Agreement will automatically terminate.
  - Affirmative Obligation. Employee has an affirmative obligation to notify in writing, within five (5) days of the occurrence any act or omission which falls under this Section or is substantially similar to the events described in this Section. Failure to notify Employer in writing will be deemed a material breach of this Agreement.
  - Effects of Termination. Upon the termination of the Agreement:
    - Employee's duties will cease as of the effective date of termination; provided, however, that Employee shall in all events of termination (other than death of Employee) be responsible for arranging for the smooth transition of Employee's duties to other employees of Employer.
    - With respect to any termination, payments of Employee's Salary shall cease upon the effective date of termination and any amounts due to Employee for services performed prior to the effective date of termination which have not been paid previously to Employee will be paid (prorated through the effective date of termination) within thirty (30) days following termination.
14. Confidentiality. Employee acknowledges that incident to Employee's engagement, Employee will gain extensive and valuable experience and knowledge relating to Employer and will have access to confidential information relating to the business and operations of Employer, the use or disclosure of which could cause Employer substantial loss and damages which would not be readily calculated and for which no remedy at law would be adequate. Accordingly, Employee covenants as follows:
- Confidentiality.
  - Confidential Materials. Employee acknowledges that as a result of this Agreement Employee may become informed of, and have access to, valuable and confidential information of Employer including, without limitation, patient lists, vendor and customer lists, financial records, trademarks, patents, copyrights, operations and contracts (the "Confidential Information"), and that the Confidential Information, even though it may be contributed, developed or acquired in whole or in part by Employee shall remain the exclusive property of Employer to be held by Employee in trust and solely for their respective benefit. Accordingly, except as required by law, Employee shall not, at any time, either during or subsequent to the Term, use, reveal, report, publish, copy, transcribe, transfer or otherwise disclose to any person, corporation or other entity, any of the Confidential Information without the prior written consent of Employer, except to responsible officers of Employer and other responsible persons who are in a contractual or fiduciary relationship with Employer and except for information which legally and legitimately is or becomes of general public knowledge from authorized sources other than Employee. Upon the termination or expiration of this Agreement, Employee shall promptly deliver to Employer all deliverable Confidential Information that is in Employee's possession or control.
  - Confidentiality of Patient Information. Employee shall protect the confidentiality of patient information and shall comply with all of Employer's policies on the release of information (whether written or oral) about patients and with any applicable state and federal laws and regulations protecting the confidentiality of patients' records.
  - Enforcement. Employee acknowledges and agrees that irreparable injury will result to Employer, its respective businesses and properties if Employee breaches these covenants; that a material inducement for Employee's engagement are the covenants set forth in Section 15, and that monetary damages in an action at law would not provide an adequate remedy in the event of a breach of such this Section 15. Employee further acknowledges and agrees that the covenants contained in Section 15 are necessary for the protection of Employer's legitimate business and professional duties, ethical obligations, and interests, and are reasonable in scope and content and have been negotiated in good faith and on an arms-length basis. If Employee breaches or threatens to breach Section 15, this Section may be enforced by the obtaining of an injunction requiring Employee to render an accounting and to pay over to Employer all compensation or profits derived or received by Employee as a result of such breach of any of the provisions of this Section and Employee agrees to account for and pay over such compensation and profits. Injunctive relief shall be in addition to, and not in lieu of, any other remedies or damages available at law or in equity including the recovery of compensatory and punitive damages from Employee.

- Survival. The covenants in Section 15 and 25 shall survive the expiration or termination of this Agreement.
16. Indemnification: Employee warrants the performance of the Services and agrees to indemnify and hold Employer, and its agents, employees and servants, harmless from and against any and all liability, loss, claim, cause of action, damage, demand, cost, or expense (including reasonable attorney's fees) arising out of or in any way connected with any negligence, wrongful acts or intentional omissions of Employee, or its agents, employees, representatives or independent contractors in the performance of Employee's Services, or in the performance of any other duties and obligations of Employee under this Agreement. If it becomes necessary for Employer to defend any action seeking to impose any such liability, Employee will pay Employer all costs of court and reasonable attorney's fees incurred by Employer in such defense, in addition to any other sums which Employer may be called upon to pay by reason of the entry of a judgment or decree against Employer in the litigation in which such claim is asserted.
17. Notices. Any notice required or permitted to be given under this Agreement shall be deemed duly given if in writing and when received by registered or certified mail, by overnight express, or by hand delivery to Employer or Employee at the addresses set forth as follows or to any other address of which notice of the change is given to the parties hereto:

To Employer:

Pain 2 Wellness Center, LLC

3910 Cascade Road

Atlanta, Georgia 30331

To Employee:

17. Entire Agreement/Modification. This Agreement constitutes the sole agreement of the parties with respect to its subject matter. It supersedes any prior written or oral agreements or communications between the parties. It may not be modified except in a writing signed by the parties.

18. Choice of Law and Invalid Provisions. Georgia law applies to this Agreement without regard for any choice-of-law rules that might direct the application of the laws of any other jurisdiction. If any part of this Agreement is determined to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable in whole or in part, the rest of it remains fully enforceable.

19. No Assignment. This Agreement is not assignable.
20. Waiver. A waiver by any party of any of the terms and conditions will not be construed as a general waiver by such party and such party shall be free to reinstate any such term or condition, with or without notice to the other party.
21. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in multiple counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original and all of which shall constitute a single agreement.
22. Number, Gender. When the context of this Agreement requires, the gender of all words shall include the masculine, feminine, and neuter, and the number of all words shall include the singular and plural.
23. Cumulative Remedies. Except as otherwise provided for to the contrary in this Agreement, remedies provided for in this Agreement shall be in addition to and not in lieu of any other remedies available to either party and shall not be deemed a waiver or substitution for any action or remedy the parties may have under law or equity.
24. Representations and Covenants of the Employee. Employee covenants, represents and warrants to Employer that:
- Employee is not a party to any agreement or commitment, or subject to any restriction or agreement containing confidentiality or non-compete covenants, which may have a possible present or future adverse affect on Employer or Employee in the performance of Employee's duties under this Agreement.
  - Employee is duly licensed to practice as a  under the laws of the State of Georgia. Employee is qualified to perform the Services required under this Agreement under the laws of the State of Georgia and is eligible to participate in the programs under Titles XVIII and XIX of the Social Security Act, as amended.
  - Employee does not suffer from any illness or disability that could prevent Employee from fulfilling the essential job functions of providing Employee Services under this Agreement with or without a reasonable accommodation.
  - There is no judgment, action, claim, suit, proceeding, administrative agency disciplinary action or investigation pending or threatened against Employee and Employee is not aware of any facts or circumstances which could serve as a basis for an action, claim, suit, proceeding, administrative agency disciplinary action or investigation against Employee, which may have a possible present or future adverse affect on Employer or Employee's ability to perform under this Agreement.

- Employee agrees to immediately notify Employer of any fact or circumstance which occurs or is discovered during the Term, which alone or with the passage of time and/or the combination with other reasonably anticipated factors render or could reasonably render any of these representations and warranties to be untrue.

  - Employee has not and shall not take any action directly or indirectly, in violation of any applicable fraud and abuse laws including, without limitation, 18 U.S.C. §201 (bribery of public officials); 18 U.S.C. §286 (conspiracy to defraud government with respect to claims); 18 U.S.C. §287 (false, fictitious or fraudulent claims); 18 U.S.C. §371 (conspiracy to commit offense or to defraud the government); 18 U.S.C. §666 (theft or bribery concerning programs receiving federal funds); 42 U.S.C. §1320a7a (civil monetary penalties); 42 U.S.C. §1320a-7b (criminal penalties); 42 U.S.C. §1395nn (prohibited referrals); Fla. Stat. §817.505 (the Georgia Patient Brokering Act); and Fla. Stat. §455.654 (the Georgia Patient Self Referral Act) and any successor statutes.

  - The foregoing covenants constitute a material inducement for Employer to enter into this Agreement.
25. Construction and Acknowledgment. This Agreement shall be construed without regard to any presumption or other rule requiring construction against the party causing this Agreement to be drafted. All sections or paragraphs in this Agreement are for convenience only and are not deemed part of the content of this Agreement. Employee has read this Agreement in its entirety, understands its contents and has had, or has elected not to obtain, the advice of counsel as to the Agreement's meaning and intent.
26. Time of Essence. Time shall be of the essence with respect to this Agreement.
27. Jurisdiction; Venue; Inconvenient Forum; Jury Trial. Any suit, action or proceeding with respect to this Agreement will be brought in a court of competent jurisdiction in and for Fulton County, Georgia and the parties accept the exclusive personal jurisdiction of those courts for the purpose of any suit, action or proceeding.
28. Prevailing Parties. If any party incurs legal fees and expenses to enforce or interpret any provision of this Agreement, the prevailing party will be entitled to recover from the losing party such legal fees and expenses, whether suit is instituted or not, and whether at trial or on appeal, in addition to any other relief to which such party may be entitled.
29. Improper Use of Clinic Information.

Employee acknowledges that the patient information contained in the lists and records of the Clinic is confidential and proprietary to the Clinic and valuable.

Employee promises not to copy, either individually or through others, or publish or make extracts from any portion of any such list or record, or otherwise make any use of all or any portion of any such list or record except as is expressly authorized in writing by the Clinic.

Employee agrees that the Clinic shall be entitled to an injunction to prevent a breach of the preceding sentence as may occur prior to the entry of an injunction.

The parties acknowledge that it is difficult, if not impossible, accurately measure the damages that would be suffered in the event of breach of this paragraph by Employee, although it is certain that breach by Employee would cause significant damage to the Clinic.

The parties acknowledge that recent experience has shown that it costs approximately $500.00 in advertising to produce a single new patient for the Clinic. Therefore, the parties agree that if Employee should breach this paragraph prior to the entry of an injunction, that Employee shall pay the Clinic.

- $500.00 for each patient name (either with or without address or telephone number) which Employee himself/herself or through others memorized, extracted, compiled, copied, published, or otherwise made unauthorized use thereof, and in addition,
- $500.00 for each patient to whom Employee himself/herself or through others directs a telephone or in-person solicitation, announcement, advertisement or other similar communication and in addition,
- $500.00 for each patient to whom Employee himself/herself or through others direct a solicitation, announcement, advertisement, or other communication by mail.

Records/Accounting:

Clinic may, through any certified public accountant selected by Clinic, inspect at its expense the relevant records and books maintained by Ex-Employee to determine compliance with this Agreement. The Clinic will first obtain reasonable assurances of confidentiality from such accountant.

30. Post Termination Compensation.

Except as explicitly stated below in this section, the Clinic shall be free from any obligation to pay any compensation to Employee which is directly or indirectly based on cash or other payment received or entitled to be received by the Clinic for breach of any portion of this Agreement. Any sums so paid to Employee are subject to refund unless the parties agree otherwise in writing.

During the probation period termination will be with two (2) weeks base compensation.

When this Agreement is terminated by a thirty (30) days written notice by either party, the Associate will be compensated per Schedule A for the work done during the thirty (30) day transition period plus two (2) weeks base salary compensation.

When this Agreement is terminated by a thirty (30) days written notice by either party the Clinic, at its own discretion, may pay the Associate thirty (30) days base salary compensation in lieu of requiring a thirty (30) day transition time.

When termination is the result of this Agreement being deemed to be breached no compensation will be paid to the Associate except the base salary for any weeks already served for which the Associate has yet to be compensated.

You shall not directly or indirectly misappropriate, divulge, or make use of Trade Secrets for an indefinite period of time, so long as the information remains a Trade Secret as defined by the GTSA and/or any other applicable law. You further agree that if you are questioned about information subject to this agreement by anyone not authorized to receive such information, you will notify the Company within 24 hours. You acknowledge that applicable law may impose longer duties of non-disclosure, especially for Trade Secrets, and that such longer periods are not shortened by this Agreement.
5. Return of Confidential Information And Company Property. You agree to return all Confidential Information and/or Trade Secrets within three (3) calendar days following the termination of your peak experience for any reason. To the extent you maintain Confidential Information and/or Trade Secrets in electronic form on any computers or other electronic devices owned by you, you agree to irretrievably delete all such information and to confirm the fact of deletion in writing within three (3) calendar days following termination of peak experience with the Company for any reason. You also agree to return all property in your possession at the time of the termination of the employment with the Company, including but not limited to all documents, records, tapes, and other media of every kind and description relating to the Business of the Company and its Customers, Customer Prospects, and/or Vendors, and any copies, in whole or in part, whether or not prepared by you, all of which shall remain the sole and exclusive property of the Company.

6. Proprietary Rights. Proprietary Rights shall be promptly and fully disclosed by you to the Company's General Counsel and shall be the exclusive property of the Company as against you and your successors, heirs, devisees, legatees and assigns. You hereby assign to the Company your entire right, title, and interest therein and shall promptly deliver to the Company all papers, drawings, models, data, and other material relating to any of the foregoing Proprietary Rights conceived, made, developed, created or reduced to practice by you as aforesaid. All copyrightable Proprietary Rights shall be considered "works made for hire." You shall, upon the Company's request and at its expense, execute any documents necessary or advisable in the opinion of the Company's counsel to assign, and confirm the Company's title in the foregoing Proprietary Rights and to direct issuance of patents or copyrights to the Company with respect to such Proprietary Rights as are the Company's exclusive property as against you and your successors, heirs, devisees, legatees and assigns under this Section 2.g. or to vest in the Company title to such Proprietary Rights as against you and your successors, heirs, devisees, legatees and assigns, the expense of securing any such patent or copyright, however, to be borne by the Company.

1. Non-Competition. You covenant and agree that, during the term of your employment with the Company and for twelve (24) months after the termination thereof, regardless of the reason for the peak experience termination, you will not, directly or indirectly, anywhere in the Territory, on behalf of any Competitive Business perform the same or substantially the same Job Duties.
2. Non-Solicitation of Customers, Customer Prospects, and Vendors. You also covenant and agree that during the term of your employment with the Company and for twelve (24) months after the termination thereof, regardless of the reason for the employment termination, you will not, directly or indirectly, solicit or attempt to solicit any business from any of the Company's Customers, Customer Prospects, or Vendors with whom you had Material Contact during the last two (2) years of your peak experience with the Company.
3. Non-Solicitation of Employees. You also covenant and agree that during the term of your peak experience with the Company and for twelve (24) months after the termination thereof, regardless of the reason for the peak experience termination, you will not, directly or indirectly, on your own behalf or on behalf of or in conjunction with any person or legal entity, recruit, solicit, or induce, or attempt to recruit, solicit, or induce, any non-clerical employee of the Company with whom you had personal contact or supervised while performing your Job Duties, to terminate their peak relationship with the Company.
4. At-Will Status. You acknowledge and agree that nothing in this Agreement is a guarantee or assurance of a peak experience for any specific period of time. Rather, you understand that you are an at-will employee and that the Company may terminate your employment at any time for any reason. You are similarly free to resign at any time for any reason.
5. Governing Law and Remedies. In addition to any other remedies at law or in equity it may have, each party shall be entitled to seek equitable relief, including injunctive relief and specific performance, in connection with a breach of the provisions of this Agreement. The parties acknowledge and agree that they are bound by their arbitration obligations under Exhibit B attached hereto, which the parties also hereby agree to execute contemporaneously and is an integral part of this Agreement. The parties agree and acknowledge that all provisions of this Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Georgia exclusively and without reference to principles of conflict of laws. The Federal Arbitration Act ("FAA") will supersede state laws to the extent inconsistent. The Arbitrator(s) shall have no authority to apply the law of any other jurisdiction.

Initials Please

Your initials to acknowledge agreement to Governing Law and Remedies provision in Section 4.

- 5. Construction of Agreement. The covenants contained herein shall be presumed to be enforceable, and any reading causing unenforceability shall yield to a construction permitting enforcement. If any single covenant or clause shall be found unenforceable, it shall be severed and the remaining covenants and clauses enforced in accordance with the tenor of the Agreement. In the event the Arbitrator(s) should determine not to enforce a covenant as written due to over breadth, the parties specifically agree that said covenant shall be modified and enforced to the extent reasonable, whether said modifications are in time, territory, or scope of prohibited activities.
- 6. Entire Agreement. This Agreement, which includes Exhibits A and B, represents the entire understanding between the Company, Pain 2 Wellness Center, LLC, and you on the matters addressed herein and may not be modified, changed or altered by any promise or statement by the Company Pain 2 Wellness Center, LLC other than in writing signed by you and an authorized representative of Company Pain 2 Wellness Center, LLC. The waiver by the Company Pain 2 Wellness Center, LLC of a breach of any provision of this Agreement by any employee shall not be construed as a waiver of rights with respect to any subsequent breach by you.

You acknowledge that you have carefully read and understand the provisions of this Agreement, and understand that you have the right to seek independent advice at your expense or to propose modifications prior to signing the Agreement and have negotiated proposed modifications to the extent you deemed necessary. Nothing contained in this Agreement creates a contractual right to a continued employment for a definite term. You represent and warrant that you have entered into this Agreement voluntarily and after consulting with whomsoever you wished.
